

The Engineers New Bike...

Two Engineers were standing in the park; one of them had a new bike.

The other engineer said, "Nice Bike. How much?"

His friend said, "It was free." That's funny, the engineer said, "How did you get the bike for free?"

Well his friend with the bike replied, "Yesterday a very beautiful girl rode up on this bike, took off all her clothes and told me I could have anything I wanted!"

The other engineer said, "Good choice, mate Her clothes wouldn't have fit you anyway!"
